

The Daily Times.

NUMBER 305.

RICHMOND, VA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1887.

PRICE, TWO CENTS

DIRECTORY

OF RELIABLE

BUSINESS HOUSES.
The Directory below of reliable and good business houses, giving their location and business, will be found very useful as a source of reference for information relative to any and all the different branches of business.

Analytical Chemist:

DR. HENRY FROELING, 118 E. Twelfth street, chemist, analytical chemist, Ohio and Richmond and Allegheny railroads. Special attention to ores and mineral waters.

Architects:

M. J. DIMMOCK, 116 E. Main street. Correspondence solicited.

Bartenders:

WILLIAM H. GARDNER, 516 E. Broad street. Hair cutting, dyeing, shaving, and shampooing.

Bathers:

RICHMOND STEAM BAKERY, E. Adam, proprietor, 118 E. Twelfth street. Wholesale and retail.

Boots and Shoes:

J. M. TEASDALE, 145 E. Main street. Best $2.50 and $3 men's and $2 and $2.50 ladies' shoes.

Butchers:

WALTER E. BRAUER, stall No. 12, First Market. Smoked beef-tongues specialty.

Candy Manufacturers:

OLIVER B. DYER, 614 E. Marshall street. Candy and confectionery, sole agent for the Cherokee Cough Drops.

Cannery Goods:

JOHN J. OEHING, corner of Fourteenth and Main streets. Tents, awnings, bags, horse-and-wagon covers.

Carpenters and Builders:

WILLIAM G. PULLIER, 119 E. Cary street. Special attention to repairing.

Carriages and Buggies:

J. A. GRASBERGER, 144 E. Main street. All work guaranteed.

Contractors and Builders:

A. C. HOLSTON, 508 E. Main street.

Country Produce:

H. WALLERSTINE & CO., 11 and 13 S. Fifth street. Potatoes, butter, beans, cabbages, &c.

Dairies:

ATFIELD DAIRY (formerly Westnedge), 412 N. Seventh street, and 116 E. Main street. Fresh milk, cream, butter, butter milk, and cheese.

Druggists:

J. M. FEAYSER, 115 E. Main street. Wholesale and retail. Proprietor of Frayser's Original Novelty and Bone-Locomic.

C. P. LEWIS, 616 E. Main street. Marshall, proprietor. Home-baked Potash's Dyeing Company.

Drying Establishments:

Mrs. A. J. FYFE, 915 Fifteenth street. Dyeing, bleaching, whitening, &c. carpet cleaning.

Mrs. A. J. FYFE, 915 Fifteenth street. Carpet Cleaning.

Mrs. H. HANNISTER, 506 E. Broad street. Lace curtains a specialty.

THE STATE PRISONERS.

WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS GRANTED BY THE SUPREME COURT.

The Proceedings Returnable Next Monday.

The Attorney General and his Associate to Remain in Jail Until Then—Judge McCabe Joins them—He Defines his Position.

Yesterday the TIMES received a dispatch from Washington which is elsewhere published, and which announces that the United States Supreme Court has granted a writ of habeas corpus in the cases of Attorney-General Ayers and Messrs. Scott and McCabe, Commonwealth's attorneys of Faquier and Louisa, respectively, which writ is made returnable on Monday next. The order of the court granting the application for the writ does not release the prisoners. It merely requires them to be brought before the court in Washington on Tuesday, and they remain confined in the jail until they leave it for the city Sunday night. After that it will be determined whether or not they are legally held by Judge Bond for contempt of court.

IS GOOD SPIRITS.

The prisoners in the meantime are not likely to suffer for care and attention. The Attorney-General remarked last night that they had spent the day very pleasantly yesterday, and had received a great many callers. Among these were United States Senator Daniel, Judge E. C. Burks, Judge E. H. Fitzhugh and others. Several ladies also visited the prisoners in their sky parlor, and Mrs. Governor Lee sent them a basket of flowers. Their friends have all taken care that they shall want for nothing that can be obtained to render them comfortable, and relieve the enau incidental to their confinement.

Mr. T. J. Lee, whose death is announced this week in Danville, has been a large shipper to this and other markets for many years. He was a man of energy and self-made, and for his years wealthy.

WINSTON, N. C.

is a lively market for plug and leaf, as well as having large cigar factories. Cutters and smokers are quoted scarce and higher this week, common wrappers still, and in good proportion to the receipts. Very little old offering.

Mr. Scott received a letter from Mr. Barbour, emphasizing this denial, and adding particularly to that extract in the pretended interview in which it is referred especially to Mr. Scott. After reading the letter, Mr. Scott remarked that it was entirely satisfactory to him.

JUDGE MC-BEDE.

Judge J. B. McCabe, who was brought to the jail from Loudoun County Tuesday night, was originally a Readjuster, and was appointed to office by Malone. His arrest on this charge has disgraced him with Radicalism, and he declares that henceforth his lot will be with the Democracy. Yesterday he gave out the following over his signature for publication:

As I, in the discharge of my sworn duty, have been brought so unintentionally on my part into public discussion, I desire to state that I shall hereafter be found in the ranks of the party that is opposed to a centralized government—a party under whose teachings it would be impossible to imprison a sovereign State in the person of her duly constituted officers.

"Very truly,"

J. B. McCABE.

THE MARSHAL TO COME AFTER THE PRISONERS.

The Washington Star of yesterday says:

The writs of habeas corpus were finally issued, and the Marshal of the Supreme Court will go to Virginia and take the imprisoned officials into custody.

This week the trial of the habeas cases in the United States Supreme Court next Monday, and there the case will either be argued and decided at once or a day for the hearing will be set and the prisoners admitted to bail.

JOSEPH DELAHUNT, 208 E. Main street. Bedding, linens, and general machine repairing. Models for patents.

MARBLE WORKERS:

G. ALLEN & WHAYN, Seventh and Grace streets. Monuments, tombs, marble dressings, &c.

MATTRESS MANUFACTURERS:

STAN DIACONI, 308 E. Marshall street. Wholesale and retail. Repairing neatly and expeditiously.

E. L. CRIBBLE CHENSHAW, 901 East Broad street. Wholesale and retail. Repairing neatly and durably done.

Mineral Water Bottlers:

TY. BOTTLING HOUSE, 406 E. Broad street. Manufacturer of Vanilla Phosphate and mineral waters.

Paints, Oils, &c.

RICHMOND PAINT & CO., 116 E. Broad street. Paints, oils, glass, and painters' supplies.

Paper Hanging:

J. DAVIS, 28 N. Ninth street. Shades, curtains, oil-cloths, and paper hanging.

Plumbers, Gas and Steam Fitters:

MEDFORD, 110 E. Main street. Practiced plumber, fitter, gas and steam fitter.

T. C. TINSLEY, 417 Broad Avenue. Steam and gas fitting, fumigating, &c.

Real Estate Agents:

J. H. DEADLEY & CO., Thirteenth and Hull streets, Manchester, Agent for the Petersburgh Savings and Insurance Company.

S. W. VASHER & SON, No. 7 N. Tenth street.

J. H. DEADLEY & CO., No. 11 N. Tenth street.

J. THOMPSON BROWN & CO., 113 E. Main street.

Rubber Goods:

VIRGINIA RUBBER CO., 516 E. Broadstreet. Bedding, house and table rubber goods.

Rubber Goods:

ATLANTIC RUBBER STAMP MANUFACTURING CO., 117 E. Main street. Manufacturers and importers of stamp novelties.

OLD DOMINION RUBBER-STAMP WORKS, 200 Bank street. Agents wanted; send for circular.

Sign Painting:

R. GARNET & CO., 1440 Franklin street (established 1860). Toilet and Laundry soaps.

Tailors:

J. H. MORRISSETT, No. 17 Seventh street, Manchester, Pa., 306.

Wire Mattresses and Cots:

F. W. LAWE, 221 E. Main street. Manufacturer of Champion Wire Mattress and Cots. The best and cheapest in the market.

Wood and Coal:

ELBA COAL YARD (Elba station), Broad and Main streets. W. S. Pitcher, agent. All kinds of Coal, Wood, and Coke. Telephones, 600.

TOBACCO.

A Comprehensive Report of the Whole Market.

The market Monday was very dull, with light offerings, but there was a good attendance on Change. On Tuesday a mixed lot of 40 packages old fillers and wrappers was sold, supposed to be for shipment to England, at about 23 cents—which is a good sale for the times.

Wednesday the market was apparently better. Auction sales were small and the quality of the offerings poor, but good prices were paid on better grades—the highest price being 11 cents for sun-cured and the lowest 80¢ to $1.30 for primmers. The receipts of new were insignificant. Factories and strippers are getting in some new bright leaf, and prices appear 25 per cent higher than last year for quality not altogether satisfactory.

SOUTH BOSTON, VA.

The receipts in South Boston are very heavy, as well as in all the interior markets. It is taking a deal of money now from Richmond banks and firms to move the crop.

DANVILLE, VA.

The receipts in Danville are very heavy, as well as in all the interior markets.

MANCHESTER MATTERS.

MANCHESTER MATTERS.

YESTERDAY'S RECORD OF EVENTS IN RICHMOND'S BROOKLYN.

Brilliant Marriage of a Journalist; a Number of Friends Present to Wish Him Happiness—Court News—Council Committee Meetings—Briefs &c.

YESTERDAY afternoon at 5:30 o'clock

Mr. Solon B. Woodfin and Miss Mandie Howlett were united in holy marriage.

The ceremony took place in the Bainbridge-street Baptist church, which was crowded long before the bridal party arrived.

Representatives from all the daily papers of Richmond were present and occupied seats specially reserved for them. Among those present, in addition to the press representatives, were Secretary of the Commonwealth, Flourney, Judge J. C. Clifton, and Police Justice D. C. Richardson. A number of the Manchester officials were also present, and a large number of friends from Richmond were over to see the happy marriage.

The walters were W. Calvert Truman of the Dispatch, Bernard P. Valden, James Howlett, James A. Maxwell, William Owens, and William Matthews.

Rev. Luther J. Thorntree in an impressive manner united the two in holy matrimony.

The walters were W. Calvert Truman of the Dispatch, Bernard P. Valden, James Howlett, James A. Maxwell, William Owens, and William Matthews.

Mr. Solon B. Woodfin is the Manchester reporter for the Dispatch, and also reports in Richmond. His work is valued by his employers, and in some circles he is pronounced one of the best reporters in Richmond.

Miss Howlett is the daughter of Mr. E. J. Howlett, who was once the City Constable, and is now employed at the Richmond and Danville Railroad shops. She is beautiful and loving in disposition and lovely in person.

THE COURTS.

The Hastings Court was yesterday barren of news, beyond the fact that one marriage license was issued.

In the Mayor's Court three young men were fined each $2.50 and costs for creating a disturbance in the neighborhood and assaulting each other.

Two negroes were fined $2 and costs each for fighting in front of Bowen & Bradley's store.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

The Hunting Committee were to meet last night to take action relative to the payment of the amount owed for the lands purchased by the city on which the new school buildings are to be erected.

The Street Committee held a meeting Tuesday night and formalized a long report, which will be presented to the Council to-morrow night. This committee intend, if it can be done, to have Hull street paved right away under the provisions of the paving ordinances passed several months ago.

INVITATIONS.

Yesterday the Committee on Invitations of Lee Camp, for the Lee monument corner-stone, sent invitations to the City Council of Manchester, J. R. Perdue, president, and to the mayor of the city.

To-day invitations will be sent to the following, each of whom will receive them through the mail this afternoon:

Manchester Lodge, No. 14, A. F. and A. M., R. B. W. Beattie master.

Independent Order of Red Men, C. S. Mills, secretary.

Henderson Lodge, I. O. O. F., Matthew R. Smith, secretary.

Stuart Lodge, I. O. O. F., J. B. Vaden, secretary.

Local Notes.

In the Police Court yesterday Joseph Brooks colored, for dealing in "policy," was sent on to the grand jury.

William Turke for assaulting and beating William Cumming on the street was fined $5 and costs.

Peter Pearson for being drunk was fined $2 and costs.

John Hickory for assaulting and abusing and threatening to beat Catharine Hickory was sent to jail in default of $300 security.

Louie Nick colored, charged with feloniously entering in the day time the house of Elwood Ray and stealing and carrying away one pocketbook containing $10, pleaded guilty and was sent to jail for sixty days.

Jeff Menser colored, for being drunk, was fined $2 and costs.